"REWARD"

The journey is the reward.

There is no reward without a sacrifice.

It's not meant to be easy, that is why it is so rewarding.

The reward for work well done is the opportunity to do more.

The reward of a work is to have produced it; the reward of effort is to have grown by it.

The most truly generous persons are those who give silently without hope of praise of reward.

The reward is in the risk.
