WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"IMPRESS"

Live life to express not to impress.

Never say anything to impress anyone. Just say what you truly feel.

I don't want to impress, I want to inspire.

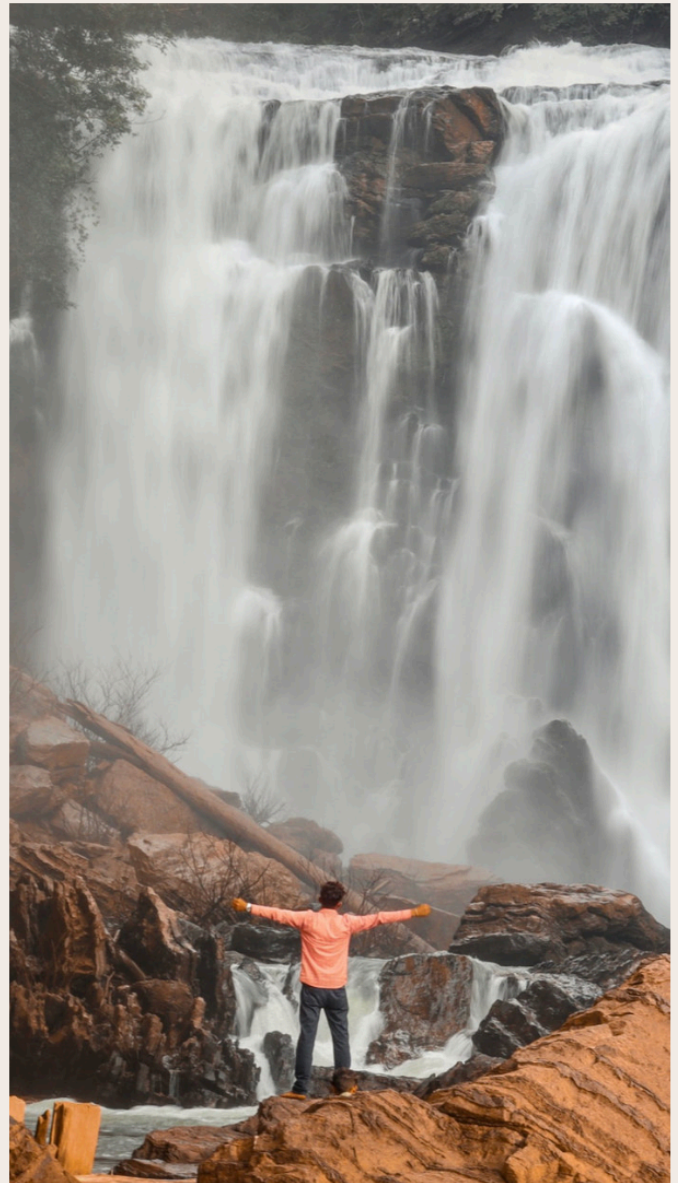

My goal is to progress not to try to impress.

Impress with your accomplishments, not your possessions.

If the world was blind how many people would you impress?

Be more willing to be impressed than eager to impress.

Exist to be happy, not to impress.
