

WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"COMPETE"

My only competition is the person I was yesterday.

The weak compete. The strong dominate.

If you want to compete, you compete at the highest level.

Everyone loves me until I become their competition.

When you're really good, no one is competition. No one!

Never compete, create.

A flower does not think of competing to the flower next to it..It just blooms.

We'd achieve more if we chased our dreams instead of our competition.

Being The Best And Average Have Nothing In Common
