WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"WINGS"

Let your dreams be your wings.

Until you spread your wings,
you will have no idea how far
you can fly.

Those who fly solo have the strongest wings.

Intelligence without ambition is a bird without wings.

You were born with wings, why prefer to crawl though life?

Caterpillars grow wings during isolation. Remember that next time you are alone.

Education grows our wings to fly.

What good are wings without the courage to fly!
