WEDNESDAY WEEKLY WISDOM!

"INVEST"

If you want to invest in something with minimum risk and a guaranteed big return, invest in yourself.

The key is not spending time, but in investing it.

Invest in people who invest in you.

You can't find returns in investments you haven't made.

Now is always the hardest time to invest.

What you invest your time in defines who you are.

Invest your energy into something that is going to contribute to your growth.

Invest in your dreams. Grind now. Shine later!
